"Pageant" presented by Old Library Theatre

October 15-17 and October 22-24, 2010.

Friday and Saturday evenings at 8 pm and Sunday matinees at 3 pm.

This Off-Broadway musical spoof is one of the rowdiest farces ever staged. "Pageant" pits six beauty queens against each other in the Glamuressse annual extravaganza. Miss Texas, Miss Great Plains, Miss Deep South, Miss Industrial Northeast, Miss West Coast and Miss Bible Belt, sing, dance and camp it up in gowns and bathing suits. A hilarious talent contest is equaled only by the zany "spokesmodel" event which requires them to hawk the sponsor's outrageous cosmetics. While the girls swirl around the charming host, judges from the audience decide who will be Miss Glamuressse. Linda Wielkocz will direct and Charles Santoro will musical direct the show, with book and lyrics by Bill Russell and Frank Kelly. Music by Albert Evans and conceived by Robert Longbottom. "Unhappy Happiness" presented by STEPS Theatre

Saturday, October 30, 2010 at 6 pm.

Steps Theatre's Slava Stepnov wrote and directed this original play based on Chekhov's short story The Lady with the Dog. The plot of the story is really simple: a vacation romance, an adulterous love affair. The play examines the paradoxical phenomenon of the unhappy happiness. Each of us often leads a double life, and sometimes this turns us into absurd and tragic characters. As Chekhov himself put it, "Everything is wonderful in this world. Everything except for our thoughts and deeds when we forget about the loftier goals of existence..." All tickets $25. This production is presented in Russian. Dimitry Mikhaylov, Producer. For more information and ticket reservations call 201-835-7708 or visit their website at www.fairlawnrussianclub.org.
